The Epiphany of the Lord

Isaiah 60:1-6; Ps 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-11, 12-13
Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6; Matthew 2:1-12

Today we celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord. Epiphany comes from a Greek verb meaning “to reveal,” and all of the various events celebrated by the Feast of the Epiphany are revelations of Christ to all humankind. Epiphany is traditionally and actually on January 6, but a number of years ago the Bishops in the United States moved it to the Sunday which falls between January 2 and 8. Many have heard of the “12 days of Christmas.” They begin with Christmas Day and end on January 6, Epiphany.

Of course, our readings on this solemnity all refer to the Epiphany as we know it — the time that the divinity of Jesus was revealed, made manifest, to the entire world, not just Israel and the Jewish people. The world is represented by the three magi — the wise men as most of us know them. They came from the east and were, like most of us, Gentiles.

In the First Reading from Isaiah the prophet speaks of what will happen centuries later after the birth of Christ. There are two strong references to the story of the Magi with which we are so familiar. Isaiah declares, “Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you.” We often speak of the Light of Christ, and often He is portrayed in art sort of glowing or with a light on His face. In addition, we have the light of the star which led the Magi to Him so they could worship Him. The images we have of them are influenced by Isaiah, when he says, “Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the Lord.”

Therefore, today we celebrate receiving God’s light. But there is more to it than that. The First Reading opens with “Rise up in splendor... Your light has come.” We are to do more than just receive the light. We are to share it and reflect it. In our terms it is as if the Lord said “Rise and shine; your light has come.” That is what we mean when we say we are called. We are called to be disciples and to be the Light of Christ for those around us.

There are certain passages in Holy Scripture almost universally known, and certainly well known to even a lukewarm Christian. The story of the Magi, the wise men or the three kings, falls into that category. As Matthew shares it in today’s Gospel, they were “magi from the east.” At no time does Matthew tell us there were three of them nor does he indicate that they are kings. Most likely, according to scholars, they were astronomers or astrologers, thus their knowledge of and fascination with the star which led them. Who they were and how many of them there were is not important. What is important is that they represent all of us, and their actions suggest to us how we need to respond to Jesus Christ and what He is and represents.

Holy Scripture is filled with subtleties we sometimes miss. Matthew tells us that “on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother.” Joseph is evidently not present, and there is a reason for that. He was not, as we know, the true father to Jesus. They presented gifts to Jesus, not to His mother or His parents. When we give to Jesus today, we do not do it directly, but to the Lord’s people through the parish and other charities.

Finally these visitors worshipped the Lord (“They prostrated themselves and did him homage.”). We, too, need to worship the Lord; we, too, need to acknowledge His holiness and His kingship. Worshipping is more important than the gifts, but we are reminded in this Gospel that both are significant.

Month of the Holy Name of Jesus

“It is the divine name that alone brings salvation.”

- Catechism of the Catholic Church, 432

The month of January is dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. The Church celebrated the feast of the Holy Name on January 3. This month, take time to celebrate its power and significance, for the name of Jesus is truly the “Name above all names.”

Please join us as we take down the Christmas decorations following the 10:30 a.m. Mass this Sunday, January 7.

The Baptism of the Lord - January 8

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, celebrated this year on Monday, January 8, proclaims a theophany, a revelation or manifestation of the Divine Sonship of Jesus by his anointing and appointment to his messianic office. This brings to an end the season of Christmas.

In submitting Himself humbly to the baptism of St. John the Baptist, Christ provided the example for the rest of us. If even He should be baptized, though He had no need of it, how much more should the rest of us be thankful for this sacrament, which frees us from the darkness of sin and incorporates us into the Church, the life of Christ on earth! His Baptism, therefore, was necessary—not for Him, but for us.

Many of the Fathers of the Church, as well as the medieval Scholastics, saw Christ's Baptism as the institution of the sacrament. His Flesh blessed the water, and the descent of the Holy Spirit (in the form of a dove) and the voice of God the Father announcing that this was His Son, in Whom He was well pleased, marked the beginning of Christ's public ministry.

Children's Liturgy
of the Word

will resume on Sunday, January 14 during the 10:30 a.m. Mass. All children present at Mass are invited forward to receive a special blessing.

The children are sent forth with a catechist to a side room in the church where they listen to God's Word and participate in prayers and activities that correspond to the scripture of the day or the liturgical season. All children are invited!

A note from the Music Director

I just wanted to take a moment to thank the Cathedral Parish for the wonderful welcome that I received upon my arrival. I am thrilled to have the opportunity to become part of this community. I am also eager to begin my ministry to the parish. I hope that I am able to aid in the beauty of the Cathedral and, through music, allow you to enter more deeply into the mysteries of the holy Liturgy.

Choir practice will resume Wednesday, January 10th at 6:30 p.m. in the Cathedral Church. If you are interested in joining the choir or have any questions please contact me. I can be reached by e-mail at mberher@dwc.org or by phone at (304) 230-1565.

I look forward to meeting each one of you – feel free to stop by the organ console and introduce yourself after Mass!

Rector's Ruminations

Epiphany

BY REV. MSGR. KEVIN M. QUIRK

Where our conundrum last week focused on the story behind January 1 as New Year's Day and as the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God, I wanted, dear friends, to share a few words about today's celebration, Epiphany, which is among my favorites in the Church's year.

The Solemnity of Epiphany (from the Greek word ἐπιφάνεια meaning "appearance, manifestation, or miraculous phenomenon") celebrates the revelation of God to mankind in human form, in the person of Jesus Christ. The observance originated in the eastern Christian churches, and included the birth of Jesus; the visit of the three Magi, Caspar, Melchior and Balthasar; and all of Jesus' childhood events, up to His baptism in the Jordan by John the Baptist and His first miracle at the wedding feast of Cana. The feast was initially based on, and viewed as a fulfillment of, the Jewish Feast of Lights (Hanukkah) and was fixed on January 6.

While references to Epiphany are found in the East in the very early writings of Saint Clement of Alexandria, it does not appear in any Western list of feast days until 361. Thus, in the West, Christmas was established before Epiphany. Over time, the West chose to fix the celebration of Christ's birth on December 25; the East continued to treat January 6 as the day marking Jesus' birth. This eventually gave rise in the West to the notion of a prolonged festival, starting on December 25 and ending on January 6, called the Twelve Days of Christmas with Epiphany being referred to as Twelfth Night. In the medieval period and still in some Latin American countries, the Christmas Season was extended to forty days, ending on the Feast of the Presentation, a.k.a.

Candlemas, on February 2.

The Irish call this day Little Christmas. In Rome, "Epiphania" was transformed into Befana, the Christmas strega who brings toys to children hoping to find and honor Christ. In Spain, Mexico, Cuba and some Latin American countries Epiphany day is called el Día de los Reyes (The Day of the Three Kings). Unique celebrations of Epiphany have sprung up in these cultures and many others. The Orthodox East has developed its own unique celebrations of Epiphany, many of which include adult men and freezing cold water or priests blessing large crowds or military parades with more holy water than might be imaginable, all of which can be seen on YouTube and other social media.

Prior to 1970, the Catholic Church reckoned Epiphany as an eight-day feast, beginning on January 6 and continuing through the Octave of Epiphany, or January 13. Since 1970, Catholic Dioceses in the United States mark Epiphany on the Sunday after the first Saturday in January and, likewise, now formally end the Christmas season on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which takes place on the Sunday immediately following January 6 or the ensuing Monday in years when the Epiphany falls on January 7 or January 8. The Baptism of Christ is one of the Luminous Mysteries of the Rosary.

The emphasis on the Solemnity of Epiphany is on the shining forth and revelation of Jesus Christ as the incarnate Messiah and second person of the Holy Trinity in three mysteries: the Adoration of the Magi, the Baptism of the Lord, and the Wedding Feast of Cana. The readings over Lectionary years A, B, and C point to this.

Meanwhile, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord singles at this one event: it is worth of such attention because, according to tradition, the baptism of Jesus in the Jordan River by St. John the Baptist marked the only occasion when all three persons of the Holy Trinity manifested their physical presence simultaneously to humanity: God the Father by speaking through the clouds, God the Son being baptized in the river, and God the Holy Spirit in the shape of a dove hovering over the scene. Thus, the Epiphany shows us Christ manifested to all the world in the presence of the Magi traveling from Arabia, Persia, and Ethiopia; the Baptism of the Lord shows us Christ being made manifest as the Son of God and beginning his public ministry; and the wedding feast at Cana, shows us Christ being made manifest as the presence of the Kingdom in his mystical marriage to mankind celebrated in the wine of salvation.

On Monday, we will celebrate the Baptism of the Lord and the end of the Christmas Season. The following Sunday, the Gospel will invite us again to the Jordan River, to hear Christ proclaimed "The Lamb of God" by His cousin John. May the celebration of Christ's manifestation this Epiphany give us the resolve to meet that time, as John the Baptist did, which Bonhoeffer describes as, "a time [...] when we will once again be called so to utter the Word of God that the world will be changed and renewed by it. It will be a new language, liberating and redeeming."

Before my usual closing, I wanted to share a prayer that I say before communion as part of my regular prayers. I was taught it by one of our Cathedral every-day saints, Tony Fiorilli, and though it is a Communion Prayer, it very much embodies the

Christian Awareness

A New Beginning

BY ALEX NAGEM

Every 24 hours we begin a new day. Every Monday begins a new week, though in the printing of calendars there is a tendency to place Sunday as the first day of the week. Every 30 or 31 days begins a new month, except for the month of February. Every January 1st begins a new calendar year. Every second of our life is a new beginning. We shouldn't be wasteful with any of our time. When our faucet is dripping water, we turn it off or repair it to save water and money. We don't want to be wasteful. When we have seconds and minutes slipping through our hands, per se, when will we realize they are gifts of a new beginning? It only takes a second to say something to make someone smile, look with anger, or make one sad. How often have we heard someone involved in an accident say they looked away for only a second? A second can change our lives. In a few seconds, we can tell someone we love them and are proud of them. We can also feel regret for not having those words pass our lips for the few seconds it would take. If you think you can do it later, a few seconds have passed, when will you start? In reading the Psalms, Proverbs, and the New Testament, God is providing His love to us every second of every breath we take. Shouldn't we return the love by our devotion to the Trinity, our love for the Holy Mother and those around us? The more I read about theology, Christianity, Catholicism, or listen to the Gospel readings and homilies, the more I learn and want to learn about our faith, our God, and what we need to do for our salvation. Often, I think of Sophie Moses as she sat in the wheelchair during Mass looking at the large Crucifix across from the altar. Sophie always had a smile on her face. She may have been suffering physically, but you would have a difficult time knowing this by her smile and boasting of God's love for us all. She appeared to be in love with Jesus every second of every day. Every second was a gift that she did not waste in complaining or feeling sorry for herself. I believe Sophie was hoping, no, looking forward to her new beginning with Jesus. We all hope for something in our lives, don't we? Hoping for something better, new or exciting. Maybe instead we should give thanks to God for what we have and for what we have been entrusted no matter the abundance or smallest grain. We all have jobs that may be stressful, tiring or just boring. We should take a few seconds of each day and thank God for these jobs and pray for the blessings that we perform each job well. Pray for direction from God. It only takes a few seconds. Ecclesiastes 2:24-26 tells us that there is nothing better than to eat and drink and find enjoyment in our toils. If we toil without complaints and do them well, we please God. The verses further state that God will give us wisdom, knowledge, and joy. As we begin a new calendar year let us take time to thank God for the blessings that we have received, ask for guidance in all we do each day, and smile with the hopes of a new beginning with Jesus.

"Lord, I pray this day that I may be a constant example of your love toward family and all whom I may meet along my way. I pray that each job given to me is one for which I give thanks and do well to please you above all else. I pray my eyes are not clouded by want of wealth and power for all of this separates me from you. I pray that I do not lose sight of the Cross as this is your sacrifice for me so I may one day be with you free from all sin. I ask to be humbled by the graces you give me so I may not boast except in your words. I pray that each second of each day is a reminder of the gifts you have given me and I remain thankful for these abundant gifts. All this I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Savior. Amen."

You are remembered in my prayers, as I hope I am remembered in yours.

"Vocatus Atque Non Vocatus, Deus

Quote from the Early Church Fathers

The glory of Christ's divinity is revealed,

by Chromatius (d.406 AD)

"Let us now observe how glorious was the dignity that attended the King after his birth, after the magi in their journey remained obedient to the star. For immediately the magi fell to their knees and adored the one born as Lord. There in his very cradle they venerated him with offerings of gifts, though Jesus was merely a whimpering infant. They perceived one thing with the eyes of their bodies but another with the eyes of the mind. The lowliness of the body he assumed was discerned, but the glory of his divinity is now made manifest. A boy he is, but it is God who is adored. How inexpressible is the mystery of his divine honor! The invisible and eternal nature did not hesitate to take on the weaknesses of the flesh on our behalf."

This Week with the Saints

January 13 - Saint Hilary (315-368) was the bishop of Poitiers, France, during the era of the Arian heresy, and he fought for the correct understanding and expression of the divinity of Christ. He was known as the “hammer against Arianism” and the “Athanasius of the West,” after the bishop of Alexandria who fought the heresy in the East. The Christian world was so divided by Arianism that Hilary was exiled twice. His great contribution was the successful expression in Latin of the theology about Christ, or Christology, that had been developed in Greek.

Blessing of the Home and Household on the Epiphany

On the Feast of the Epiphany, it is customary to ask God’s blessing on your home and all those who live in and visit the home. It is an invitation for Jesus to be a daily guest in our home, our comings and goings, our conversations, our work and play, our joys and sorrows.

When all have gathered, a suitable song may be sung. The leader makes the sign of the cross, and all reply, “Amen.” The leader greets those present in the following words:

Let us praise God, who fills our hearts and homes with peace. Blessed be God forever.

R/. Blessed be God forever.

In the following or similar words, the leader prepares those present for the blessing:

The Word became flesh and made his dwelling place among us. It is Christ who enlightens our hearts and homes with his love. May all who enter this home find Christ’s light and love.

One of those present or the leader reads a text of sacred Scripture, for example, Luke 19:1-9.

After the reading of the Scripture, the intercessions are then said:

Leader: The Son of God made his home among us. With thanks and praise let us call upon him.

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, with Mary and Joseph you formed the Holy Family: remain in our home, that we may know you as our guest and honor you as our Head. We pray:

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, you had no place to lay your head, but in the spirit of poverty accepted the hospitality of your friends: grant that through our help the homeless may obtain proper housing. We pray:

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

Leader: Lord Jesus Christ, the three kings presented their gifts to you in praise and adoration: grant that those living in this house may use their talents and abilities to your greater glory.

We pray:

R/. Stay with us, Lord.

After the intercessions the leader invites all present to say the Lord’s Prayer.

The leader says the prayer of blessing with hands joined:

Lord God of heaven and earth, you revealed your only-begotten Son to every nation by the guidance of a star. Bless this house and all who inhabit it. Fill us with the light of Christ, that our concern for others may reflect your love. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

R/. Amen.

The leader concludes the rite by signing himself or herself with the sign of the cross and saying: May Christ Jesus dwell with us, keep us from all harm, and make us one in mind and heart, now and forever. R/. Amen.

It is preferable to end the celebration with a suitable song, for example, “We Three Kings.”

A Prayer Before Communion

Mother Mary,
who prepared the first resting place
for our Lord on earth,
who prepared the manger for Him
on Christmas night,
prepare my heart to receive Him now.
Dear Mother,
make haste for the time is short.
Would that I had the heart to love
with which you did.

Give to me this morning
the gift of your Son
as you did give Him
to the shepherds and the kings.
Tell Him that I want to be your child.
Thus, He will come to me with a more loving eye
and hold me closer
to His Sacred Heart.
Amen.
