ORDER OF MASS

INTRODUCTORY RITES

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

We should glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom is our salvation, life and resurrection,
through whom we are saved and delivered.

(Galatians 6:14)

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

We Glory in the Cross of Christ

1. We glo - ry in the cross of Christ, for He is our sal - va - tion.
2. We cel - e - brate the life of Christ, are nour - ished with His pres - ence.
3. Pro - claim to all the love of Christ, who died and rose to save us.

His res - ur - rec - tion from the dead gives life to all cre - a - tion.
He gives His bod - y, shares His blood: a cov - e - nant re - mem - brance.
By serv - ing oth - ers we o - bey the man - date that He gave us.

Praise Christ, our Sav - ior! Praise our Re - deem - er!

Praise and a - dore Him for ev - er!

HOMILY

Most Reverend Michael J. Bransfield
Bishop of Wheeling-Charleston

WASHING OF THE FEET

As I Have Done For You

I, your Lord and Mas - ter, now be - come your ser - vant.
I who made the moon and stars will kneel to wash your feet.
This is my com - mand - ment: to love as I have loved you.
Kneel to wash each oth - er's feet as I have done for you.

All the world will know you are my disciples by the love that you offer, the kindness you show.
You have heard the voice of God in the words that I have spoken.
You beheld heaven's glory and have seen the face of God.

I must leave you now only for a moment. I must go to my Father to make you a home.
On the day of my return, I will come to take you with me to the place I have promised where your joy will have no end.

I am like a vine, you are like the branches. If you cling to my teaching you surely will live.
If you make your home in me, I will come to dwell within you.
You can count on my mercy when you ask for what you need.

I have called you friends, now no longer servants. What I told you in secret, the world longs to know.
There can be no greater love than to give your life for others.
As the Father has loved me, so I love you as my own.

You will weep for now while the world rejoices. But the tears of your sorrow will soon turn to joy.
As a mother cries in childbirth and her pain is turned to gladness, you will know great rejoicing on the day of my return.

I will give you peace; this will be my blessing. Though the world churns around you, I leave you my peace.
I have told you all these things that my peace may dwell within you.
Let your faith be unshaken and your hope be ever strong.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

This is the Body that will be given up for you;
this is the Chalice of the new covenant in my Blood, says the Lord;
do this, whenever you receive it, in memory of me.

(1 Corinthians 11:24-25)

GUIDELINES FOR THE RECEPTION OF HOLY COMMUNION

For Catholics

As Catholics, we fully participate in the celebration of the Eucharist when we receive Holy Communion. We are encouraged to receive Communion devoutly and frequently. In order to be properly disposed to receive Communion, participants should not be conscious of grave sin and normally should have fasted for one hour. A person who is conscious of grave sin is not to receive the Body and Blood of the Lord without prior sacramental confession except for a grave reason where there is no opportunity for confession. In this case, the person is to be mindful of the obligation to make an act of perfect contrition, including the intention of confessing as soon as possible (canon 916). A frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance is encouraged for all.

For Our Fellow Christians

We welcome our fellow Christians to this celebration of the Eucharist as our brothers and sisters. We pray that our common baptism and the action of the Holy Spirit in this Eucharist will draw us closer to one another and begin to dispel the sad divisions which separate us. We pray that these will lessen and finally disappear, in keeping with Christ's prayer for us "that they may all be one" (John 17:21).

Because Catholics believe that the celebration of the Eucharist is a sign of the reality of the oneness of faith, life, and worship, members of those churches with whom we are not yet fully united are ordinarily not admitted to Holy Communion. Eucharistic sharing in exceptional circumstances by other Christians requires permission according to the directives of the diocesan bishop and the provisions of canon law (canon 844 § 4). Members of the Orthodox Churches, the Assyrian Church of the East, and the Polish National Catholic Church are urged to respect the discipline of their own Churches. According to Roman Catholic discipline, the Code of Canon Law does not object to the reception of communion by Christians of these Churches (canon 844 § 3).

For Non-Christians

We also welcome to this celebration those who do not share our faith in Jesus Christ. While we cannot admit them to Holy Communion, we ask them to offer their prayers for the peace and the unity of the human family.

For Those Not Receiving Holy Communion

All who are not receiving Holy Communion are encouraged to express in their hearts a prayerful desire for unity with the Lord Jesus and with one another.

COMMUNION PROCESSION

At That First Eucharist

1. At that first Eu - cha - rist be - fore you died,
 2. For all your church, O Lord, we in - ter - cede;
 3. We pray for those who wan - der from the fold;

O Lord, you prayed that all be one in you;
 O make our lack of char - i - ty to cease;
 O bring them back, Good Shep - herd of the sheep,

At this our Eu - cha - rist a - gain pre - side,
 Draw us the near - er each to each we plead,
 Back to the faith which saints be - lieved of old,

And in our hearts your law of love re - new.
 By draw - ing all to you, O Prince of Peace.
 Back to the Church which still that faith does keep.

Thus may we all one Bread, one Bod - y be;

Through this blest Sac - ra - ment of U - ni - ty.

(Choir) The Supper of the Lord

Laurence Rosania
(b.1957)

*Precious body, precious blood, seen as bread and wine;
here the Lord prepares the feast divine.
Bread of love is broken now, cup of life is poured:
come, share the supper of the Lord.*

This is the bread of God coming down from heaven,
giving life to us, to all the world.

“I am the living spring of eternal life;
you that drink from me shall not thirst again.”

“I am the bread of heaven giving life to you;
you that eat this bread shall never die.”

“All those who feed on me have their life in me, as I have my life in the living God.”

All praise to you, O Christ, present in this feast;
in this bread, we share in one life, one Lord.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Following the Prayer after Communion, the celebrant will kneel before the altar and incense the Blessed Sacrament in the ciborium. The celebrant will then receive the humeral veil, take up the ciborium, and process to the Altar of Saint Joseph, where the Blessed Sacrament will remain in repose the rest of Holy Thursday. The faithful are encouraged to join in the solemn procession to the Altar of Repose, while the Pange Lingua is sung.
