From Father Sateesh
 "Is God's coming matched by our waiting?"

We spend a lot of time waiting. Children wait for their father to come home after many months of working in a foreign land, young people wait for their friends to come back from their trips, brothers and sisters wait for their siblings who have been staying away from home, patients wait for a remedy for their terminal sickness, students wait for the results of their exams, the unemployed wait for a new job....All waiting tests the quality of their hope. Waiting is part of life and there is no life without it. Advent puts this in sharp focus; do we wait for God?

The Gospel on this First Sunday of Advent has a short parable about the householder who has servants to whom he assigns particular tasks before he sets off on a journey. He singles out the doorkeeper with a special warning. "Be on your guard then, because you do not know when the master of the house is coming." If we were to focus our gaze on the doorkeeper alone, we would realize that perhaps the greatest danger facing him is not so much that he may fall asleep on the job as that he may grow so accustomed to it that it will become just a job and nothing more.

We know that waiting and watching can become boring, and routine can set and take over in the best of circumstances. We can get used to anything, we can even get used to the Sacred, we can get used to God, and then smugness, skepticism creeps into our lives. We can become Christians by habit and routine and we can keep up the external ritual and routine, but we don't encounter God anymore but only our own emptiness. We know Jesus is constantly coming into our lives. Each of us is the doorkeeper, whom God has put in charge of our own lives as well as the lives of our community, our church, our society. Advent calls us to stand ready. We can only welcome Jesus into our life if we are alert and attentive to Him.

May we use this hopeful season to continue to prepare our hearts and entire lives for the coming of Christ Jesus by using the gifts God has given us, especially the sacraments and the Church. Let us be watchful, alert, and ready!

Annual Collection for Retired Religious

Next Weekend: December 9/10

The annual collection for retired religion will be taken up in our Diocese next weekend. This collection has helped many religious communities in our country since it began in 1988. It is a simple fact that, having taken vows of poverty, religious do not usually have the resources to take care of all their needs when they reach an age when they can no longer actively serve. Yet they have given of themselves for many years to God's people. It is our duty as Catholics to show our esteem and appreciation for their loving service.

Please be generous response to the collection next weekend for the Retirement Fund for Religious. All the proceeds will help religious congregations around our country. Thank you in advance for your generous support.

How To Make the Most of This Advent

Set Aside Time for Silence

If prayer is a conversation with God, that means part of the conversation involves listening. To enter into silence, find a quiet place and remove all distractions. Perhaps eventually you will try visualizing a quiet, peaceful scene, like the divine silence in the hours after Jesus was born, as He slept in Mary's arm.

Rediscover Old Traditions

There are many beautiful traditions associated with Advent. Perhaps the most easily recognized is the lighting of the Advent wreath each Sunday, with its one pink and three purple candles. Some families have a tradition of slowly adding pieces to their nativity set over the weeks, culminating in placing Jesus in the manger on Christmas Eve.

Serve Others

Much of the holiday season is spent thinking of presents and the material aspect of Christmas, and seeking out ways to serve others is the perfect antidote. During the season there is no shortage of soup kitchens and donation centers in need of help, and it is an opportunity to bond with family and friends, as well as meet new people. By serving others, we are in essence serving God and His Son. Advent is the perfect time to prepare oneself to meet Jesus by meeting Him in others.

Christmas Caroling

Tuesday, December 19 at 6pm

Continuous Care Center, Wheeling

If you are 55 years and over and searching for a group that shares conversation, friendship, fun, and spiritual activities, this group is just for you!

Help spread the joy and hope of the Christmas season by joining parishioners and friends for an evening of Christmas Caroling at the Continuous Care Center on December 19 at 6pm!

The month of December is traditionally dedicated to the Divine Infancy of Jesus Christ. This month, let the paradox of Christ's birth and childhood strike us anew. Let us pray with Mary in the words of an ancient hymn by Saint Ephrem the Syrian: "I am your Mother but I will give honor to you. I have engendered you, but you are older than I am. I have carried you in my womb, but you sustain me on my feet. You have been born of me like a little one, but you are as strong as a giant. The height of the heavens are filled with your majesty, and yet my womb has not been too small for you."

Ways to Honor the Divine Infancy

- ❖ Pray and support children and their families who are victims of abuse; homelessness; hunger; discrimination; and poverty
- ❖ Pray the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary
- ❖ Make an effort to take the Season of Advent seriously

Pro-Life Corner

At all stages of life, we believe life is sacred. Whether it's at a child's conception to a senior on their last breath, life is a blessing that should be preserved as God intended.

December 4 - St. John Damascene, priest, doctor of the Church (c.657-749)

St. John Damascene was a Syrian monk and priest. He authored the Fountain of Wisdom, a summary of the teachings of the Greek Fathers, and is honored as a Doctor of the Church for his theological writing on the assumption and his defense of the veneration of images.

December 6 - St. Nicholas, bishop (270-343)

St. Nicholas of Myra, was a fourth-century bishop remembered for both his acts of charity and his denunciations of the Arian heresy. His generosity to the poor and reputation as a miracle worker made him one of the best-loved saints of both the Eastern and Western Churches. Patronage: children, bankers, pawnbrokers, sailors, perfumers, brides, unmarried women, travelers, fishermen, dock workers, brewers, poets, prisoners

December 7 - St. Ambrose, bishop and doctor of the Church (c.340-397)

St. Ambrose was baptized and ordained both presbyter and bishop in one week. He let nothing get in his way. His way of settling conflict brought him to be elected a bishop. He cared for his people as did the friends of the paralytic and Jesus, who cured body and soul. Can we live Christ today, even if opposition and disbelief try to dissuade us? Patronage: beekeepers; candlemakers

December 9 - Saint Juan Diego Cuautlatotzin (1474-1548)

Saint Juan Diego Cuautlatotzin was a native Mexican, a farmer, and a laborer. On December 9, 1531, on his way to attend Mass, he heard a woman call out from Tepeyac Hill. She was the Virgin Mary, and she asked Juan Diego to tell the bishop to build a chapel on the site. Juan Diego went to the bishop with the request, but the bishop scoffed at him. He returned with his cloak, or tilma, filled with roses, and when he unfurled it before the bishop, the woman's image was imprinted on the inside. The bishop believed, and the church was built. The image on Juan Diego's tilma is venerated as that of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

Blessing of an Advent Wreath at Home

The use of the Advent wreath is a traditional practice which has found its place in the Church as well as in the house. The blessing of an Advent Wreath takes place on the First Sunday of Advent. Customarily the Advent Wreath is constructed of a circle of evergreen branches into which are inserted four candles. According to tradition, three candles are violet and the fourth is rose. When the blessing of the Advent Wreath is celebrated in the home, it is appropriate that it be blessed by the parent or another member of the family.

Lord our God, we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ: he is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples, he is the wisdom that teaches and guides us, he is the Savior of every nation. Lord God, let your blessing come upon us as we light the candles of this wreath. May the wreath and its light be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation. May he come quickly and not delay. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Rest In Peace

Confraternity of St. Nicholas

The Confraternity of Saint Nicholas is a public association of the faithful who, through prayer, fasting, and good works, are dedicated to the protection of all children from scandalization, abuse, and trafficking. Obligations are to attend Mass on December 6 and May 9, to say the Litany of St. Nicholas weekly, a brief daily prayer, and skip one meal every Wednesday.

Eucharistic Congress Pilgrimage

On July 17 to 21, 2024 the Church in the United States will gather as one family for a National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis, IN. This exciting event will be a five-day experience with prayer, Mass, Adoration, Catechetical sessions, fellowship, etc. with Catholics from around the country. The Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston was able to purchase 250 tickets at a discounted rate and Bishop Mark Brennan would like to make them available to members of the Catholic faithful at no cost. Because of the large number of Catholics across the state, the Diocese has decided to allot 2 tickets for each parish. It is important to note that the complimentary ticket is only for entry into the venue. It does not include transportation, hotel, or meal costs. To help offset the cost for participants, the Diocese is partnering with Corporate Travel, the official pilgrimage partner of the National Eucharistic Congress, to make a comprehensive pilgrimage package available to participants at a discounted rate. Please see the flyers in the back of the church for more information as well as pricing. If you are interested in participating in this pilgrimage, please submit your name to the parish offices by December 6.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Distribution of Wine

Question:

Why haven't Catholic Churches gone the way of disposable cups for wine distribution?

Answer:

If a Catholic has ever attended a Protestant worship service and saw the communion service that was offered for that community, one of the things that might have stood out was the use of small, disposable cups for distributing the wine or grape juice. This is in stark contrast to the precious metal chalices used in Catholic churches during the Mass.

Although practices for Protestant Christians can vary (ranging from large shared chalices, to personal-use cups, to dipping the bread in the wine/grape juice), the norms governing Catholic practices are fairly direct: "Sacred vessels are to be made from precious metal. If they are made from metal that rusts or from a metal less precious than gold, then ordinarily they should be gilded on the inside. In the Dioceses of the United States of America, sacred vessels may also be made from other solid materials that, according to the common estimation in each region, are precious ... they are to have bowls of non-absorbent material" (nos. 328-330). Rather than being a commentary on the beliefs or practices of those other communities, these rules are intended to highlight the reverence that Catholics have for the bread and wine consecrated at Mass, which become the Body and Blood of the Lord.
