From Father Sateesh

"This is my beloved Son! Listen to him"

In our First Reading, we see God appearing to a seventy-five-year-old Abram to tell him to travel to Canaan to fulfill the destiny God had in mind for him. Abram was not a young man, and he could well have complained and protested as some of us do. "Lord, I've lived here most of my life. We have our property, and our future is secure. Now you are asking me to give up the known, the safe, the familiar and go to an unknown land? Sorry Lord, it's too late!" But Abram loved the Lord and trusted in him and so he immediately obeyed God's call though it would cost him.

In the Gospel, we see Jesus walking the same journey of faith as Abraham did. He knew he was going to suffer and die at the hands of the leaders of the people, whom he had challenged and confronted. He now goes up the mountain, taking with him Peter, James and John, with whom he wants to share this intimate experience. As Jesus leads the three up the high mountain, in their presence he was transfigured, his face shone like the sun. Moses and Elijah appeared to them, a bright cloud covered them with its shadow and from the cloud there came a voice that said, "This is my son, the Beloved; he enjoys my favor. Listen to Him." It is an assurance for Jesus, his three disciples and for all of us, that our librd, with all our suffering can and will be transformed by the power of God and his presence with us. Again, the reading reminds us that Jesus took the initiative in inviting his friends to come up the mountain with him. It is always God's initiative and never our own that can bring about a transformation, a transfiguration in our lives.

The last part of the Gospel scene tells us that the three were so deeply struck by the presence of God that Peter babbles foolishly about building three tents so that they can stay there with Jesus. But like Jesus, we have to come down the mountain. The Gospel also tells us that they were afraid, they fell on their faces trembling with fear after their experience with God, but Jesus comes to them, touches them and reassures them: "Do not be afraid." When they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus. That final note is comforting for all of us when we have to let go of something beautiful, meaningful and life giving. Will we lose it all? Will we be able to move on? Will we be equal to the task and be able to make the decision that awaits us? All we need is to look up and we will find only Jesus saying to us: "Be not afraid!" It's going to be alright!

One of our human tendencies is to settle down and take roots wherever we stay for a long time. We tend to be creatures of habit and routine. The older we grow the more we resist change and transformation. Yet the call of the Christian is to be on the move; ready to respond to the call of the Lord, ever seeking and doing whatever the Lord wants of us. May the reassurance of His transfiguration and our own encourage us to move on! Have a transforming weekend!

From Deacon Doug

I wish to thank all of you for your prayers, good thoughts, and kindness during my most recent operation of knee surgery. My recovery is going surprisingly well. Please continue to pray for me as I continue to pray for you. I hope to see all of you soon.

THE HOLY EUCHARIST: THE SOURCE OF OUR LIFE, SALVATION, AND MISSION

LENTE MISSION WITH BISHOP WILLIAM WALTERSHEID

MARCH 5 - 7 AT 6:00 PM
CATHEDRAL OF ST. JOSEPH, WHEELING

Bishop William J. Waltersheid, an Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Pittsburgh, will lead a three-night Lenten Mission intended to deepen and reawaken our faith with special talks, prayer, music, and reflection. All are welcome to attend!

All are invited to enjoy three Lenten evenings of prayer and reflection led by Pittsburgh Auxiliary Bishop William J. Waltersheid during the evenings of March 5, 6 and 7 in the Cathedral. Please bring a friend and join us starting this Sunday evening at 6pm for this special event and allow the power of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist to heal, strengthen, and be present in your lives!

What is a Mission?

A mission is a special event of preaching and reflection that often occurs within the context of liturgical prayer such as Vespers (Evening Prayer), Mass, and Eucharistic Adoration, with the increased availability of the Sacrament of Confession. The mission usually occurs during special liturgical seasons such as Lent in order to greatly urge the people to a more ardent practice of the Faith. Its purpose is to set aside specific time during an important liturgical season to be more open to Jesus and to receive renewal, conversion, and an outpouring of grace.

Who is Leading the Mission?

Bishop William J. Waltersheid, V.G., S.T.L., was born and raised in the Diocese of Harrisburg where he was ordained a priest and served as parochial vicar and pastor in various parishes. He served as Vice Rector of the Pontifical North American College in Rome, Italy. Appointed an Auxiliary Bishop of Pittsburgh in 2011 by Pope Benedict XVI, he has served in various roles and is currently the Vicar General and Vicar for Faith Initiatives in the Diocese of Pittsburgh. Bishop Waltersheid is a wonderful speaker and devout bishop who has a deep love for Christ and His Church.

This will surely be an event that you don't want to miss!

The Holy Father's Prayer Intention for March

For Victims of Abuse

We pray for those who have suffered harm from members of the Church; may they find within the Church herself a concrete response to their pain and suffering.

Updated Liturgical Guidelines

On March 1, 2023, Bishop Brennan released a letter with updated liturgical guidelines to directives that he implemented during the height of the COVID-19 pandemic. Please note the following:

Precious Blood of Christ

After much prayerful discernment and consultation with members of the medical community, the Bishop has decided to reinstate the distribution of the Sacred Cup to the faithful who wish to receive it effective on Holy Thursday, April 6, 2023. While we believe that when one receives either the Body or Blood of Christ, one is receiving the whole Christ, "His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity," nevertheless, "sharing in both Eucharistic species reflects more fully the sacred realities that the Liturgy signifies" (Norms for the Distribution and Reception of Holy Communion Under Both Kinds in the Dioceses of the United States, #8, #10). The reception of the Sacred Cup has always been optional; those who are uncomfortable or fearful from drinking from the chalice should not feel badly. If anyone does not feel well or has an illness, it is important that they refrain from receiving from the Sacred Cup out of concern for our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ.

As we prepare to begin the distribution of the Precious Blood at Masses starting on Holy Thursday, April 6, 2023, we will start to schedule Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion at all the weekend Masses. If you have served in this ministry in the past and would like to continue doing so or if you are new and would like to sign up, please contact the parish offices.

Distribution of Communion

It is still the protocol for priests, deacons, and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to sanitize their hand after distributing the Body of Christ on the tongue. Effective immediately, priests, deacons, and Extraordinary Ministers are no longer required to wear masks when distributing Communion to the faithful.

Sign of Peace

Both "tactile" and "non-tactile" gestures are now allowed during the liturgy. As we return to the usual practice of exchanging the Sign of Peace during Mass, it might be helpful to review the meaning behind this moment during the Sacred Liturgy. This is not a time for saying "Hello, how are you doing?" or "Good morning!" Rather we are bestowing one another with the Peace of Christ. In the Gospel of John (14:27), Jesus makes it clear that the peace that He bestows on us, that we in turn share with one another, is not as the world gives. The Church tells us that "It is appropriate that each person, in a sober manner, offer the sign of peace only to those nearest to them" (GIRM, #82).

The month of March is dedicated to St. Joseph. We don't know much about him except what is mentioned in the Gospels. Joseph was the husband of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the foster-father of Jesus. Holy Scripture proclaims him as a "just man," and the Church has turned to Joseph for his patronage and protection.

Pope Saint John Paul II, in his 1989 Apostolic Exhortation Redemptoris Custos (Guardian of the Redeemer), hopes "that all may grow in devotion to the Patron of the Universal Church and in love for the Savior whom he served in such an exemplary manner ... In this way the whole Christian people not only will turn to St. Joseph with greater fervor and invoke his patronage with trust, but also will always keep before their eyes his humble, mature way of serving and of "taking part" in the plan of salvation." St. Joseph is invoked as patron for many causes. He is the patron of the Universal Church. He is the patron of the dying because tradition holds that Jesus and Mary were at his death-bed. He is also the patron of fathers, of carpenters, and of social justice. Many religious orders and communities are placed under his patronage, including the Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston.

March 7 - Sts. Perpetua and Felicity, martyrs (d.203)

Perpetua was a wealthy noblewoman, the mother of a young son and Felicity was a humble slave girl, who gave birth to a daughter just a few days before she died. The account of the martyrdom of Saints Perpetua and Felicity forms one of the finest pages of the history of the first centuries of the Church. It shows us clearly the wonderful sentiments of these two women when they heard that they had been condemned to the wild beasts. Knowing their own weakness but relying on the strength of Christ, who was fighting with them, they went to their martyrdom as to a triumphant celebration, to which they were invited by Christ. They were exposed to the fury of wild beasts in the amphitheater at Carthage, A.D. 203, and finally killed by the sword. These women, so different in their circumstances, were united in their death. The names of these heroic women are included in the Roman Canon, Eucharistic Prayer I. Patronage: mothers

March 8 - St. John of God, religious (1495-1550)

John of God was a Portuguese friar who became a leading religious figure. After a period in the army in Spain, John began to distribute religious books, using the new Gutenberg printing press. At one point, John had an intense religious experience that resulted in temporary insanity. He was thrown into a mental institution, and while there, he realized how badly the sick and the poor were treated. Once he recovered, he spent the rest of his life caring for them. In Granada he gathered a circle of disciples around him who felt the same call and founded what is now known as the Brothers Hospitallers of St. John of God, today numbering about 1,117 religious. Patronage: hospitals; sick; nurses; booksellers

March 9 - St. Frances of Rome, religious (1384-1440)

Frances of Rome was born in Rome to wealthy parents. Although she wanted to enter a monastery, her parents married her off to Lorenzo Ponziano, commander of the papal troops in Rome. It was a happy marriage that lasted forty years. Her husband was often away at war, and Frances spent her time praying, visiting the poor, and caring for the sick. Eventually, her example inspired other wealthy women to do the same. Frances founded a lay congregation of Benedictine Oblates now known as Oblates of St. Frances of Rome. Patronage: widows; motorists; people ridiculed for their piety

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Lent

Question:

Lent always seems to help me renew my relationship with God and strengthen my religious practice. Do you have any suggestions as to what I could do to achieve that the rest of the year?

Answer:

The obvious answer may seem to be to do whatever you do during Lent all year round. But part of the power of Lent is that we focus as a community on renewing our faith and preparing for Easter. Our Lenten practices have a purpose and a goal. Therein lies the secret. When we focus our efforts on one virtue, or try to change one bad habit, or seek to deepen our understanding of one aspect of faith, we focus our efforts and give our full attention to what we are trying to accomplish. We tend to be more successful achieving our goals. More importantly, it has a ripple effect in our lives: one thing changes or is added to the spiritual mix of our lives and many aspects are changed.

All too often we leave our spiritual growth to chance and the practice of faith to habit, and then wonder why we have no sense of growth or progress. Think of it in terms of exercise. We walk, lift weights, bend and stretch to attain the maximum benefit from what we do. In addition, to keep those benefits, we eat healthful food and get enough vitamins and rest. Spirituality requires the same kind of attention: we pray, fast, read the Bible, receive sacraments, and do charitable work to maximize the benefits of practicing faith. Keeping Lent year round keeps us in spiritual shape!
