PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(All bow at these two lines.)
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his Kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

UNIVERSAL PRAYER      Response: Lord, hear our prayer.

In ev'ry age and land:
Pour out your Holy Spirit
To make us strong and pure,
To keep the faith unbroken
As long as worlds endure.

This is the moment glorious
When he who once was dead
Shall lead his church victorious,
Their champion and their head.
The Lord of all creation

The final consummation,
The glory of all things.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Who do you say that I am?” Even today there are a lot of opinions on who the person of Jesus is, but the Gospel for this Sunday reminds us that the most important opinion is our own: who do I say that Christ is?

In today’s Gospel Our Lord starts questioning his disciples about the rumor mill regarding him but then hits them with a pop quiz. Who did people think Our Lord was? Simply a prophet, and, for most, not even a new prophet: one back from the dead. Peter taught us how we should respond to the question: “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Peter’s profession of faith in today’s Gospel was bolstered by grace, not just his own sleuthing. The Father revealed something about his Son in Peter’s response, and Peter’s faith should therefore be our faith.

On the simple, humble faith of Peter, Christ founds his Church with the rock-solid power to bind and to loose, to forgive and to sanctify, and with the mission of evangelizing and to announce the good news to the world. The Church is established in the communion with Peter and in obedience to Peter. It is consoling and comforting to hear today the word of the Lord that seals this design of God: “The powers of hell will not prevail over it.” It gives strength to be able to walk in today’s world without presumption, but with the certainty that the Spirit of God leads the Church and its leaders.

May we too come before the living God to profess our faith with certainty and with the assurance that God will provide for our every need. It is just the same our responsibility to preach the good news and help the Church to grow on earth as it was Peter’s and the apostles and the many disciples of the earth church. When Our Lord asks us today and every day: Who do you say that I am? Let us respond with certain faith, “You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God.”

Guidelines for Public Celebration of the Mass

We kindly ask that you please review and adhere to these guidelines while attending Mass in the Cathedral:

- ❖ The faithful are required to bring their own facemasks and to wear them during Mass.
- ❖ Social distancing is necessary at Mass while seated in the pew and during the Communion procession. Families living in the same household may sit together. We are only able to accommodate 92 people per Mass at the Cathedral. Seating will be on a first come first seated basis. If additional seating is necessary, the overflow crowd will be directed to The Great Hall of Central Catholic High School where the Mass will be live-streamed.
- ❖ Some common, though optional practices of the Mass, will be omitted such as the use of hymnals, holding of hands during the Our Father, the Sign of Peace, and the offering of the Precious Blood of Christ to the faithful.

The complete list of guidelines are available for your review on the diocesan website: www.dwc.org.

Please keep in mind that Bishop Brennan has given the faithful of the Diocese the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass. Therefore, sick persons and those more susceptible to infection – the elderly, those already in frail health – are urged to remain at home and participate in televised or online Masses. Anyone who fears being infected by attending Mass should stay home.

From the Desk of the Vice-Rector...

Dear Parishioners of the Cathedral Parish,
 This week on August 27th we will be celebrating the feast of St. Monica. Monica was born to devout Christian parents in North Africa in the fourth century. She married a pagan who was less than faithful to her and a troubled marriage ensued. Among her three children was St. Augustine, perhaps the greatest theologian the Church has ever had. Yet, Augustine was not born a Saint. He took after his father and lived a life of dissipation for many years. Monica was, understandably, tortured by this and spent many hours in prayer for her husband and son and not without effect. Shortly before his death, won over by her prayers and virtuous example, her husband entered the Church. After 17 years of prayers and tears, Augustine turned from the ways of falsehood and error and he, too, entered into the way of salvation by following the Lord Jesus, Who is the Way and the Truth and the Life.

Many of us have family and friends who are outside the Church or have wandered away from the Church and it is for these loved ones that we have poured forth countless prayers and, like St. Monica, even shed tears. Sometimes her 17 years of prayer is small compared to the amount of time we have spent begging God's mercy on behalf of our friend. For many centuries friends and families concerned about the immortal souls of loved ones have seen in St. Monica a benevolent patroness, a caring friend, and a powerful intercessor. It is the custom at the Cathedral Parish that on her feast day we have a Mass for the Conversion of Lost Souls. This year the Bishop will be celebrating that Mass and I would like to extend an invitation to everyone who prays for lost souls to attend that Mass.

God love you and keep the Faith!

Fr. Martin J. Smay

This fourth-century saint was a Christian, but her husband was a pagan. Monica's virtues and prayers, however, converted him, and he was baptized a year before his death. When her son, Augustine, went astray in faith and morals, Monica's tears and prayers for her son were incessant. She followed him where he went to teach, and there continued to storm heaven with prayers for her son. Finally, she had the joy of witnessing Augustine being baptized. In addition to being one of the patron saints of mothers, Monica is most often invoked for the conversion of children who have left the Church. During the Mass on her feast day, everyone will have an opportunity to write down the names of their loved ones and entrust them to the powerful intercession of Saint Monica.

In your charity, please keep in your prayers:

SAINT OF THE DAY

AUGUST 24 - SAINT BARTHOLOMEW (1st century)

There is little reference in the Gospel to Bartholomew, other than the fact that he was one of the original Twelve Apostles. He is also mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles as one of the disciples waiting for the descent of the Holy Spirit. According to a second-century Alexandrian teacher Pantaenus, an early Christian community in India claims Saint Bartholomew as its founder. Tradition states that he preached throughout Persia, Mesopotamia, Lycaonia, and Phrygia. It is believed that he was martyred by being flayed alive at Albanopolis, on the west coast of the Caspian Sea. PATRONAGE: butchers; tanners

AUGUST 25 - SAINT LOUIS (1214-1270)

Becoming king of France at the age of 12, Louis IX imbued French culture with a deep sense of divine justice. Although he enjoyed the finer things in life, including good wine and food, he never lost sight of the poor. It was not uncommon for him to feed the less fortunate from his own table, but he felt this was not enough so he provided homes for them. Even with the many constraints upon his time, he managed to spend several hours a day in prayer. PATRONAGE: masons; sculptors

AUGUST 25 - SAINT JOSEPH CALASANZ (1556-1648)

Also on August 25, the priest Joseph Calasanz (1556 -1648), who formed a religious order, the Clerks Regular of the Pious School, to set up free schools for the education of poor children. He believed that education would free the young from the dismal life of the slums, basically ending the cycle of poverty, by giving them the necessary skills to build a brighter future. During the plague of 1595 he ministered to the sick with St. Camillus de Lellis. PATRONAGE: Catholic schools who assist the poor

AUGUST 27 - SAINT MONICA (d.387)

Monica knew the pain of disappointment, an unfaithful husband who drank too much, and a promiscuous son, Augustine of Hippo, who lived an immoral youth. Through patience and love, her husband had a change of heart, choosing to become a Christian. Augustine's conversion was a much more difficult task. St. Monica prayed constantly and fasted daily, but nothing seemed to work, so she consulted St. Ambrose, bishop of Milan, for guidance. Through the intervention of God the two of them managed to lead St. Augustine to the waters of Baptism. St. Monica exemplifies that unconditional love and persistence are portals for God's saving grace. PATRONAGE: mothers; those who have left the Church

AUGUST 28 - SAINT AUGUSTINE (354-430)

Augustine was born to a pagan father and a devout Christian mother. This wild, unruly young man later became one of Western Christianity's most influential figures. He tried it all: living with a woman, fathering a child out of wedlock, and dabbling in Manichaeism, a heretical belief similar to Gnosticism. Through his mother's prayers and friendship with Ambrose, he eventually converted to Christianity, was ordained a priest, and became Bishop of Hippo in 396. His prolific writing formulated theories and doctrines on original sin, just war, human will, divine predestination, the Trinity, and Christology. PATRONAGE: printers; theologians

AUGUST 29 - PASSION OF SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST (1835-1914)

In addition to the feast of the nativity of Christ's precursor, Saint John the Baptist (June 24), the Church, since the fourth century, commemorates the Martyrdom of Saint John the Baptist. There is no doubt that John suffered imprisonment and chains as a witness to our Redeemer, whose forerunner he was, and gave his life for him. His persecutor had demanded not that he should deny Christ, but only that he should keep silent about the truth. Nevertheless, he died for Christ. Does Christ not say: "I am the truth"? Therefore, because John shed his blood for the truth, he surely died for Christ.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

The Knights of Columbus is a Catholic fraternal organization for men founded in 1882 whose purpose is to put their Faith into action. The Council for St. Michael, St. Vincent, and the Cathedral, "The 504," was founded in 1900 and is the oldest council in the State of West Virginia.

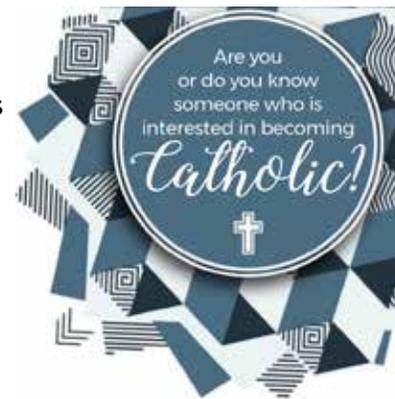

As a council, in the past 12 months we were responsible for accumulating over 3,700 man-hours of volunteer work and about $35,500 of donations and contributions. Our modest accomplishments and efforts include the Leap Hunger Project, Baby Bottle Project, Tootsie Roll Drive, Special Olympics, the Russell Nesbit Program, Support for Seminarians, and we assisted with the Catholic Charities Spaghetti Dinner. We also have a Rosary program, Family of the Month, Catholic Citizenship, Leave No Neighbor Behind, Essay Contest, Free Throw Contest, Coats for Kids, and we support the Red Cross Blood Drives. Finally, we have a Golf Club that gathers at Oglebay's Crispin course every Thursday at 7:30am.

We are looking for faithful Catholic men - good citizens committed to the common good of all to join us. We are dedicated to Fraternal Charity and Fraternal Unity. The Council meets on the second Tuesday of the month at 7pm. If you are interested in joining and getting involved with these and other projects, please contact Art Bertol at ArtBertol@hotmail.com or Jermac McGlumphy at jermacjermac@gmail.com.
