Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Beginning this Sunday, and continuing the next four Sunday, the Gospel is taken from John 6, reflecting on Jesus as the Bread of Life. Today's Gospel reading recounts Jesus' miracle of feeding the multitude. In a miracle that anticipated Jesus' miracle of feeding the multitude, as reported in today's Gospel, the prophet Elisha commanded that a small amount of bread be served to 100 men, and Jesus promised that all would indeed be fed. Elisha trusted that promise, acted upon it, and saw the promise miraculously fulfilled. We, like most people, tend to forget the miracles our Lord can work in everyday life. If we trust in God and live as good disciples, what we accomplish is, in its own way, a miracle.

Saint Paul beautifully sums up how our approach to living as Catholics should be. In today's Second Reading from his letter to the Ephesians, Paul urges us to live "with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of spirit through the bond of peace: one body and one Spirit." Does that describe our relations with one another?

This cannot happen unless we have the same kind of trust that Elisha had, and which St. Paul had, as well. Paul also says in today's Second Reading, "I urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received." This is discipleship at its core.

Jesus knew full well what miracle He was about to perform, but He also saw this as a chance to teach His Apostles, and also show us the way. Philip and the others had already seen Jesus perform many miracles, and there should have been no question in his mind about the divine resources Jesus had at His disposal. Yet Philip hesitated. It is human nature to be doubtful. Yet, as with Elisha, they all ate, and there was much left over. Through this miracle, Jesus is teaching us to trust Him, the Bread of Life. 🍞

August: Month of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

The month of August is dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. The memorial of the Immaculate Heart of Mary takes place on the day after the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, usually in June, but in this month when we celebrate Mary's Assumption (August 15) and her Coronation or Queenship (August 22), we also give honor to her Immaculate Heart. There are many prayers to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Here is one short enough to memorize and pray every day during this month: "O Immaculate Heart of the Blessed Virgin Mary, obtain for me from Jesus a pure and humble heart."

*"The hand of the Lord feeds us;
he answers all our needs."*

Saints for the Week Ahead

July 30 - Not much is known about Saint Peter Chrysologus (406-450), other than he was bishop of Ravenna from about the year 433 until his death. One hundred seventy-six of his homilies survive, brief and to the point, in which he explains the Incarnation, the Creed, and the major heresies of his day. He was given the name Chrysologus, or “golden-worded,” for his eloquent preaching.

July 31 - Saint Ignatius of Loyola (1491-1556) was the founder and first Father General of the Society of Jesus, or Jesuits, and author of the Spiritual Exercises. Born in the Basque region of Spain, he joined the army and was severely wounded in battle. While recovering, he read about the life of Christ and the lives of the saints, and decided to emulate them. He laid his military equipment before a statue of Mary at the Benedictine abbey of Montserrat, and spent several months in a cave near Manresa. After making a pilgrimage to the Holy Land, he enrolled at the University of Paris, and he gathered six companions who would become the first Jesuits. The Jesuits today have over 500 universities and colleges, 30,000 members, and teach over 200,000 students each year. Patronage: Jesuits; retreatants; soldiers

August 1 - Following a successful career as a lawyer, Saint Alphonsus Maria de Liguori (1696-1787) lost a legal case that he believed to be a sign from God that he should change his ways and study for the priesthood. At the suggestion of a bishop friend, he founded the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer, also known as the Redemptorists, a community of priests dedicated to preaching, hearing confessions, and administering the sacraments. One of his most important contributions to the Church is his prolific writing in the area of moral theology. Also included among his writings are many devotional works on Mary and the saints. He influenced the Church not only through his writings, but also through his leadership as a bishop. Patronage: confessors; moral theologians; against arthritis

August 2 - Saint Eusebius (283-371) the first bishop of Vercelli, spent much of his life trying to settle conflicts between Catholics and Arians. (Arians denied the divinity of Christ.) Because St. Eusebius actively supported the views of the Catholic Church, as expressed in the Nicene Creed, he was severely persecuted by Arian proponents, by means of starvation and exile.

Also on August 2, Saint Peter Julian Eymard (1811-1868) changed immensely after he had an overwhelming experience of God's love while carrying the Blessed Sacrament during the Corpus Christi procession. He founded the Blessed Sacrament Fathers, a community dedicated to perpetual adoration of the Eucharist, along with Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament. He believed adoration of the Eucharist was not an end in itself, but a means to evangelization and service.

August 4 - Although Saint John Vianney (1786-1859) was not academically astute and had to receive his training privately, he was ordained a priest due to his virtue. He was stationed in a small village, Arsen-Dombes, in France, where he became a noted catechist, confessor, and spiritual director. Soon, he gained a reputation for working miracles, such as multiplying loaves and physical healings. Consequently, the small village became a place of pilgrimage, attracting over 300 visitors a day, from 1830 to 1845, to see the “Curé d’Ars.” Special train schedules as well as a special booking office had to be established in the nearby city of Lyons to accommodate the steady stream of visitors. Patronage: priests

Eucharistic Adoration - First Friday

On each First Friday of the month, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed in the monstrance following the 12:05 p.m. Mass and will remain on the Main Altar for Adoration. This month, the period of Eucharistic Adoration will conclude with the celebration of Benediction at 1:30 p.m. If you are able, we encourage to make time in your schedule to adore our Lord and Savior, truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament.
