RECTOR'S REFLECTIONS

Dear Friends in Christ Jesus,

Today the Church celebrates Gaudete Sunday, the Sunday of joy. In the midst of Advent's quiet waiting, the liturgy calls us to rejoice, for the Lord is near. This joy is not shallow or superficial. It comes from knowing that even in a world often darkened by sin, confusion, and sorrow, God is with us. His light shines in every act of love, every moment of grace, and every heart that turns back to Him.

As a parish family, we have a beautiful reason to rejoice. Last Sunday during the Rite of Entrance, we welcomed the largest group of catechumens and candidates that we have had in many years. This is a great blessing for our Cathedral. I ask you to keep them in your prayers as they continue their journey of faith and prepare, God willing, to enter the Church at Easter. May the Holy Spirit guide and strengthen them in every step.

I am also grateful to everyone who contributed to our Angel Tree giving program this year. Your generosity brings hope and dignity to families in need, reminding us that Christ is found whenever we care for our brothers and sisters. Thank you for sharing your blessings so generously.

As we enter this Third Week of Advent, I encourage you to slow down, to pray more intentionally, and to make room for silence and reflection. Let us take this season seriously. The Lord desires to meet us, to speak to our hearts, and to fill us with His peace. Do not let the busyness of the world crowd out the quiet voice of God.

May the joy of Christ fill your hearts and homes as we continue our journey toward Christmas.

In Christ,
Father Pen

Blessing of Bambinelli NEXT WEEKEND!

The blessing of the Bambinelli has been a tradition in Rome for many years. The children of Rome bring the Christ Child from their family manger to St. Peter's Square for the Holy Father to bless at the time of his Sunday Angelus on a Sunday during Advent. Continuing this tradition, at each Mass during the weekend of December 20 and 21, everyone is invited to bring the baby Jesus from their home nativity set to receive a special blessing.

Annual Collection for Retired Religious

This Weekend: December 13 & 14

The annual collection for retired religion will be taken up in our Diocese this weekend. Since 1988, this fund has supported communities who, after lives of service and vows of poverty, often lack resources in their later years. They have given so much to God's people, and we are called to show our gratitude. Please be generous to the Retirement Fund for Religious. All proceeds assist religious communities across the country.

The "O" Antiphons

Ancient Prayers of Longing, Hope, and Promise

For more than twelve centuries, the Church has prayed the O Antiphons during the final days of Advent, from December 17 to 23. These short, poetic invocations—sung or recited before the Gospel Canticle at Vespers (Evening Prayer)—express the deepest longings of Israel and the Church for the coming of the Messiah. Each antiphon begins with the exclamation “O” and addresses the Christ with a biblical title drawn from the Old Testament. Together, they form a rich tapestry of prophecy and fulfillment, revealing the identity and mission of Jesus.

The origins of the O Antiphons can be traced to at least the sixth century, and they were certainly in widespread use by the eighth. The Benedictine monks who arranged them recognized not only their theological depth but also their symbolic unity. In fact, when the first letters of their Latin titles—Sapientia, Adonai, Radix Jesse, Clavis David, Oriens, Rex Gentium, Emmanuel—are read backwards, they form the acrostic ERO CRAS, meaning “Tomorrow I come.” Even their structure reflects the joyful expectation of Christ’s nearing presence.

The O Antiphons have shaped the Church’s liturgical imagination across the centuries. They echo most famously in the beloved Advent hymn “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel,” which paraphrases these ancient prayers and gives voice to our longing for the Savior. Their enduring significance lies in the way they bridge Old and New Testaments, inviting us to contemplate how the promises made through the prophets find their fulfillment in Jesus Christ.

Each antiphon reveals something essential about the Messiah: He is Wisdom and Light, the Root that gives life, the Key who sets captives free, the King who brings peace, the God-with-us who comes to save. During these days of late Advent, the O Antiphons invite us to slow down, pray with greater attention, and ponder the nearness of Christ.

Below are the seven O Antiphons. Praying them each day from December 17 to 23 can be a meaningful way to prepare spiritually for Christmas:

December 17 – O Sapientia (Wisdom)

O Wisdom of our God Most High, guiding creation with power and love, come to teach us the path of knowledge.

December 18 – O Adonai (O Lord)

O Leader of the House of Israel, giver of the Law to Moses on Sinai, come to rescue us with your mighty power.

December 19 – O Radix Jesse (Root of Jesse)

O Root of Jesse’s stem, sign of God’s love for all his people, come to save us without delay.

December 20 – O Clavis David (Key of David)

O Key of David, opening the gates of God’s eternal Kingdom, come and free the prisoners of darkness.

December 21 – O Oriens (Radiant Dawn)

O Radiant Dawn, splendor of eternal light, sun of justice, come and shine on those who dwell in darkness.

December 22 – O Rex Gentium (King of the Nations)

O King of all nations and keystone of the Church, come and save humanity, whom you formed from the dust.

December 23 – O Emmanuel (God-with-Us)

O Emmanuel, our King and Giver of Law, come to save us, Lord our God.

Stewardship Reflection

On this Third Sunday of Advent (Gaudete Sunday), we are invited to rejoice—the Lord is near! In the midst of Advent's prayerful waiting, today's liturgy bursts with joy and hope. As Christian stewards, we are called to be messengers of that joy, not only in word but in how we live, give, and serve. Even small acts of kindness, generosity, or encouragement can prepare hearts to receive Christ. May our joy be rooted not in the season's busyness, but in the quiet certainty that God is with us and will never fail us.

Month of the Divine Infancy

The month of December is traditionally dedicated to the Divine Infancy of Jesus Christ. This month, let the paradox of Christ's birth and childhood strike us anew. Let us pray with Mary in the words of an ancient hymn by Saint Ephrem the Syrian: "I am your Mother but I will give honor to you. I have engendered you, but you are older than I am. I have carried you in my womb, but you sustain me on my feet. You have been born of me like a little one, but you are as strong as a giant. The height of the heavens are filled with your majesty, and yet my womb has not been too small for you."

Ways to Honor the Divine Infancy

- ❖ Pray and support children and their families who are victims of abuse; homelessness; hunger; discrimination; and poverty
- ❖ Pray the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary
- ❖ Make an effort to take the Season of Advent seriously

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. John of the Cross (1542–1591)

Feast Day: December 14

Saint John of the Cross was a Spanish Carmelite priest, mystic, and Doctor of the Church whose writings on prayer and union with God remain among the greatest treasures of Christian spirituality. Born in poverty, he entered the Carmelites and later worked closely with Saint Teresa of Ávila to reform the order, helping to found the Discalced Carmelites.

His deep love for God was tested through suffering, including imprisonment by those who opposed the reform. During this time, he wrote some of his most profound works, such as The Dark Night of the Soul and The Spiritual Canticle, expressing the soul's journey toward divine love through purification and faith.

Known for his humility, poetry, and mystical insight, Saint John of the Cross teaches that true union with God comes through surrender, love, and detachment from worldly things.

St. John of the Cross, pray for us!

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEK

A Joyful Beginning on the Journey to Christ

Celebrating our New Catechumens and Candidates

With great joy and thanks to God, we celebrated the Rite of Entrance for our catechumens and candidates last Sunday, December 7, during the 10:30 a.m. Mass. This marks the beginning of their formal journey of faith, as they seek full communion with the Catholic Church. We rejoice with them as they take this significant step in responding to God's call, and we promise to accompany them with our prayers and support.

We are blessed this year with the largest group we have welcomed in many years, and we ask you to please keep them in your prayers. May the Holy Spirit guide, strengthen, and inspire them as they continue to grow in faith and prepare to receive the Sacraments.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Catholic Life Explained:

Decorating for Christmas

Question:

Why do some churches decorate for Christmas late in Advent?

Answer:

The timing of Christmas decorations in many churches highlights the spiritual significance of Advent. Advent is a season of waiting, anticipation, and preparation for the celebration of Christ's birth. It is distinct from the Christmas season, which begins on December 25 and lasts until the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord in January.

During Advent, the Church encourages a focus on spiritual preparation, reflected in the simplicity of decorations like the Advent wreath and the use of purple. Many parishes wait until just before Christmas to decorate fully, emphasizing the transition from Advent to Christmas. This delay builds anticipation for the feast and aligns with the liturgical rhythm, where Christmas is celebrated as a season of joy, not just a single day.

This tradition can also inspire individuals and families to embrace Advent as a time of patient waiting and to fully immerse themselves in the joy of the Christmas season once it arrives, rather than rushing to take down decorations immediately after December 25. It's a reminder that Christmas begins, rather than ends, on Christmas Day.

2025 Jubilee Year Pilgrims of Hope

The Diocese of Wheeling-Charleston has designated four pilgrimage sites for the Jubilee Year 2025, including our own Cathedral of St. Joseph! The other sites are the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart (Charleston), St. Patrick Church (Weston), and St. Joseph Parish (Martinsburg).

From now until December 28, 2025, the faithful are invited to visit these locations to obtain a Jubilee Indulgence, as called for by Pope Francis. To receive this special grace, pilgrims must:

Make a brief pilgrimage to one of the designated sites as a sign of conversion and hope.

Pray—by participating in Holy Mass, Liturgy of the Hours, the Stations of the Cross, or the Rosary.

Confess—receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation within 20 days before or after the pilgrimage.

Receive Holy Communion, reflecting on the hope God gives.

Pray for the Holy Father and his intentions, with the Our Father and Hail Mary recommended.

A Plenary Indulgence may be applied to oneself or a soul in purgatory and can be obtained once per day.

For a full list of Jubilee pilgrimage sites in the U.S., visit www.usccb.org/jubilee2025/pilgrimage-sites-us

Let us embrace this sacred time as Pilgrims of Hope!

Epiphany Party

Parishioners of the Cathedral and St. Alphonsus are warmly invited to a festive catered dinner, followed by plenty of good cheer to bring a sparkling finish to the Christmas season!

Reservations are required and limited.

Please RSVP by December 26.
